

BY THE Lords Justices General,
AND
General Governours OF IRELAND,
A PROCLAMATION.

Bolton, Gallway.

WE HEREAS by Our Proclamation bearing Date the Twelfth day of July, 1698. We did (among other things) give publick notice, that We had Ordered the Payment of Subsistence to all the Commission Officers of the Regiments then Disbanded, and therein named for one Month, and intended to continue paying the same, and to avoid the difficulty of such Payments out of the Treasury, to each particular Officer or his Assigns, did appoint an Agent to Receive the said Subsistence out of the Treasury, and make Payment thereof to the respective Officers concerned; And having now given Directions for the Payment of more Money, on Account of Subsistence to the Officers of the said Disbanded Regiments, We do for the same consideration think fit, to give notice by this Our Proclamation, that We have appointed Francis Cromwell, Esq; to be the sole Agent for Receiving such Allowance or Subsistence, as shall from time to time be ordered for the Commission Officers of the Disbanded Regiments, mentioned in Our said former Proclamation; and all other Officers Disbanded in this Kingdom, who shall or may hereafter have any Allowance or Subsistence given them out of His Majesty's Treasury, which the said Francis Cromwell is to Receive; And is hereby required from time to time, as such Allowance or Subsistence shall be Issued to him, by His Majesty's Vice Treasurer of this Kingdom, or his Deputy, to pay the same to the respective Disbanded Officers, or their Assigns duly Authorized accordingly, and and for his Pains, Care and Trouble therein, We think it reasonable that he Deduct Two pence out of every Twenty Shillings he shall so Receive or Pay, and no more; and all persons herein concerned, may from time to time as there shall be occasion, apply themselves to the said Francis Cromwell for such Subsistence, as is and shall be ordered as aforesaid. And that the said Disbanded Officers may not be obliged to attend in Dublin, but reside at such places as they shall think best for their own conveniency; they are once every Three Months, either to present themselves to the Muster-Master-General or his Deputy, at his Office in Dublin, or send Certificates thither, from the chief Magistrate of any City or Town Corporate; or the next Justice of the Peace to the place of their Abode, not being a City or Town Corporate, under the Hand and Seal of such chief Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, of their being alive, and having come before them, whereupon the said Disbanded Officers shall be allowed: And the Muster-Master-General, or his Deputy, is hereby required on the appearance of such Disbanded Officers to him, or Receipt of Certificates as aforesaid, that they are alive, to allow them accordingly, and certify the same from time to time, to the Deputy Vice-Treasurer, in order to the Payment of their Subsistence as Warrants shall Issue for the same. And to the end the said Officers may have notice hereof, We require the Sheriffs of the several Counties, Cities and County Towns in this Kingdom, upon Receipt hereof, to Publish and Affix the same as in like Cases is usual.

1 May 1699

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the First day of May, 1699.

By Their Excellencies Command,

H. May.

God Save the King.

D U B L I N, Printed by Andrew Crook, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, on the Blind-Key near Copper-alley 1699.

